

Sobre el autor

Miguel Ángel Piery is a foreign languages professor living in Ithaca, NY. He was born in Buenos Aires to a family of Greek-Cypriot immigrants. Traveled extensively, worked and lived for more than 10 years in Europe (Spain, England, Norway, Italy, Germany, Austria, Portugal), South, Central and North America, and Morocco.

He graduated with an MPS from Cornell University. He was the Chair of the Foreign Languages Department and Director and founder of the Language Lab at Tompkins Cortland Community College. He taught Spanish and Italian, organized study abroad trips and travelled with his students to Spain, Costa Rica and Morocco.

He is an avid reader who wrote short stories along with other authors in Mosaicos Literarios, printed under the auspices of Cornell Creative Arts and the Rose Goldsen Fund, and Anton's Window/La ventana de Antón, a bilingual children book which has been recently published by Snow Fountain Press.

His relationship of respect and identification with the cycles and manifestations of nature have been constant and fundamental in the formation of his social and spiritual philosophical principles to promote love, peace and justice in the world.

ANTON'S WINDOW LA VENTANA DE ANTÓN

By Miguel Ángel Piery

Illustrated by
Ellen Alexander

Anton's Window

Anton is a very lucky boy. He lives in a beautiful place with a big window. Through it he can see chickadees, turkeys, cardinals, deer, rabbits, raccoons... One day he moved to New York City, now he has a big new window. Anton also enjoys what he can see from there, and he doesn't know which window he prefers.

Which one would you like?

La ventana de Antón

Antón es un niño con mucha suerte. Vive en un hermoso lugar con una gran ventana. A través de ella puede ver herrerillos, pavos, cardenales, ciervos, conejos, mapaches... Un día se mudó a la ciudad de Nueva York, ahora tiene una nueva ventana. Antón disfruta también de lo que puede ver desde allí, y no sabe cuál ventana prefiere.

¿Qué ventana prefieres tú?
